

James Hudson - Short Bio

London-based jazz vocalist James Hudson is a rising star on the UK jazz scene. An assured and charming performer, James has a natural affinity with an audience and an outstanding voice that undoubtedly sets him apart as a singer at the top of his game.

His debut album 'TOMORROW', released in February 2021, provides the perfect showcase for his tasteful phrasing, accomplished interpretive ability and passion for jazz standards. The album received widespread critical acclaim, gaining exceptional reviews, international media coverage and air-time across national radio stations such as BBC and Jazz FM.

In-demand at many of the UK's most respected jazz clubs, James has performed to sold-out crowds at the world-famous Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club, Pizza Express Jazz Club Soho, Crazy Coqs and has appeared at the EFG London Jazz Festival, Leeds Jazz Festival, Wigan International Jazz Festival and the Snape Proms. Guesting with some of the top big bands and orchestras in the industry, James has travelled all over the world to sing - appearing in Spain, India, Norway, Egypt, Malta and Monte Carlo.
